

PECOS PETE _ LONGVIEW, AB _ SEPT 2013

In early September we were pleased to host Dr. Pierangelo Pedersoli and his wife, Claudia who were visiting the Calgary area at our invitation.

The annual Calgary chapter Pheasants Forever silent auction was being held at the Calgary Polo Club and Dr. Pedersoli donated a beautiful La Bohemienne shotgun for the auction, and participated in the afternoon trap and skeet shoot.

During the visit Will took Pierangelo goose and duck hunting twice in central Alberta on our friend Richard Biggs' property. Meanwhile, Claudia and Donna toured Banff and Lake Louise enjoying the beautiful weather and magnificent scenery.

We engaged Del Strazza and Linda Falconer of the Guns of the Golden West to help us create the perfect 'western' experience on the last night of their visit.

After a day of hunting, we took the Pedersoli's to the Longview Steak House for a wonderful dinner with our friends, Bonnie and Francis Gardner. This gave them an opportunity to meet and visit with real Alberta ranchers.

As Dr. Pedersoli is a western enthusiast, we promised to take him to a 'cowboy bar'. So after dinner, we went to the Twin City Bar in Longview where a pre-arranged gun fight was to ensue.

Unknown to our guests, the Guns of the Golden West were in the bar when we arrived, ready to play out their re-enactment of bounty hunters looking for Pecos Pete (Dr. Pedersoli). The bounty hunters found Pecos Pete, but were interrupted by the Sheriff and Deputy and a gun fight began. But wait, the bar owners (two lovely gun slinging ladies) were upset at the gun fight in their bar, so they also had a shoot out with everyone. In the end, we are not sure if anyone survived.
